

“PRINCESS” DRESS UP E-TEA-QUETTE PARTY 1 1/2 Hour lesson (Including Tea service)

Have a one of a kind tea party to celebrate any occasion. Tea is a social beverage and, as any social situation, it calls for manners. In fact, the ceremonies of teatime can raise our manners to the pinnacle of refinement. Its charm lies in the little niceties that are associated with the eating and the drinking of the tea service as well as the socializing and conversation. Invite your friends for a lesson on modern day manners by certified etiquette trainer, Kari Doody on the various courtesies that are associated with any tea gathering. Kids will have fun while playing games that will reinforce their manners at home.
